Details:

On the morning of July 21, 2024, Prime News was shaken by the tragic death of one of its esteemed reporters, Daniel H. Reynolds. The incident occurred in the early hours, around 7:30 AM, in the newsroom. Initial reports suggest that the victim was alone at the time of the incident, and the cause of death has been identified as blunt force trauma to the head. The police have taken a janitor, who was on duty during the early shift, into custody for questioning, as he was the only other person present in the building at the time. Prime News staff are devastated by the loss, and the newsroom remains closed for investigation. However, some colleagues expressed doubt about the involvement of the janitor, citing his long-standing reputation as a dedicated worker.
