

📢 That influencer made me curious but where's the link to buy?

📢 Instagram's fine, but I'm mostly on TikTok these days.

📢 You're not speaking our language. Try memes or reels - we want to laugh, not read essays.

📢 Only saw the post once. If it showed up on TikTok a few more times, I might've clicked.

📢 Uninspired visuals. Looked like stock photos, not something I'd trust or share.

📢 Too much text in the image. Made me scroll right past. Just a clean, fun video would work.

📢 Hard to tell what was actually being sold. If there was a clear offer, I missed it.

📢 It felt corporate. You need to sound more like us.

📢 Great product, but the post didn't catch my eye at all.

📢 "Try using trending sounds. That's what makes me stop and watch."

📢 Honestly, your logo looks like a boomer brand. No offense.
